At the same time, the Bank will not accept a payment order to carry out a transfer operation if it does not contain the necessary details established by the relevant regulatory act of the President of the National Bank of Georgia on the procedure for performing a payment operation, as well as additional information/documentation requested by the Bank.

2.3.1. The Client is responsible for the accuracy of the "Payment Order" (for information specified therein);

2.3.2. Upon receipt of a payment order for a payment transaction, the Bank will write off the corresponding amounts in full from the Client's account(s), however, such an order may not be executed immediately after the order is issued;

2.3.3. The payment order will be executed by the Bank within 2 (two) banking days after it is submitted to the Bank in full, unless otherwise provided by law.

2.3.4. The payment order must be duly signed by the Client and the Bank (except for electronic payment orders).

2.3.5. When fulfilling the Client's Order for a transfer operation, the Bank determines the procedure and methods for carrying out the transfer operation in accordance with this Agreement and the rules established in the Bank.

2.4. Unless otherwise established by the current legislation (including the authorized person of the National Bank of Georgia) and (or) the rules in force in the Bank, if a payment order is initiated on a non-banking/non-working day, then the Order is considered received on the next banking day (in this case, outgoing transfers in foreign currency submitted after 18:00, as well as transfers in national currency submitted after 17:20, will be considered received on the next banking day), unless the corresponding Order is completed by the Bank before the end of the same banking day).

2.5. The Bank has the right not to accept a payment order for execution and/or refuse to execute the order in the presence of one or more of the following circumstances:

2.5.1. The Payment Order does not comply with the requirements established by law and/or the rules and procedures established by the bank (including, in the case of international transfers, the conditions established by the agreement concluded with the intermediary bank);

2.5.2. The Order contains false information (link);

2.5.3. The order does not contain the information/documentation requested by the bank, including information/documentation requested by the bank in the process of studying the economic content of the operation (transaction) and/or to determine the origin of the client's material assets (and/or their legality);

2.5.4. the amount available in the account to fulfill the Order (including the corresponding commission) is insufficient to fulfill the Order;

2.5.5. the amount required to carry out the operation or part of it is blocked (including in the case of blocking by the bank);

2.5.6. a legal restriction has been imposed on the Client's account(s) and/or funds in the account(s) (including if the amount is subject to a public law restriction);

2.5.7. The Client has used up the overdraft limit allowed on the account, which is necessary to execute the Order;

2.5.8. the transaction exceeds the limit set by the depositor(s) or the Bank;

2.5.9. The Bank did not receive the Order in the prescribed manner;

2.5.10. Failure to properly identify the client and/or recipient;

2.5.11. In the process of researching/studying the transaction, the Bank cannot properly verify the economic content of the operation (transaction) requested by the Client and/or the origin of the Client's material funds (and/or its legality), and/or the Bank suspects that an illegal act may have taken place action;

2.5.12. In the event that the Bank cannot properly implement the measures provided for by law (including preventive measures).

2.5.13. If there is another obstacle/circumstance that makes it impossible to fulfill the Order.

2.6. In case of refusal to execute a payment order, the Bank notifies the Client of this by sending a message to one of the contact details registered with the Bank, no later than the deadline established for the execution of the payment order. In addition, in case of refusal to accept or execute a payment order, the Bank has the right to require the client to provide additional information and/or documentation to execute the order.

2.7. Cancellation of an Order given by the Client to the Bank is possible in cases provided for by current legislation.

2.8. If during the transfers from other Bank the identification data of Client stated in money transfer order does not fully coincide with the information related to Client held with the Bank, received funds will be transferred by the Bank to "an indefinite funds account", the Bank shall further carry out all necessary investigations in order to determine the recipient of the funds and in case of correction of the data above will transfer the funds to the Client's account and if it becomes impossible to correct the data accordingly, the funds shall be returned to a remitting party unless the law provides other.

2.9. The Client is obliged to immediately notify the Bank of the information he has received regarding the amount erroneously credited to his account, otherwise the Client will be liable in accordance with this Agreement and the law.

12.8.2.7. In case of non-recognition of transactions (transactions) carried out using the card, and/or a requirement to correct the transaction (deals) carried out with the card, apply in writing (in paper or electronic form) with an application to the Bank about the implementation of an unauthorized transaction (from transaction/debiting the transaction amount from the account)/incorrectly executed operation ("incorrectly executed "transaction" is defined in accordance with the legislation of Georgia) within 13 (thirteen) months from the date of the transaction/debiting the transaction amount from the account), except cases where the deadline provided for in this paragraph is missed by the Client/Cardholder due to independent/objective reason(s) of the client/cardholder, and not due to an unjustified delay (the obligation to prove the above lies with the Client/Cardholder). Regardless of whether the Client/Cardholder misses/breaks the appeal period, the Bank, within its capabilities, will assist the Client/Cardholder in returning the amount(s) lost as a result of an unauthorized or improperly performed transaction. The Client is required to pay a fee for additional services established by VISA and MasterCard in connection with the investigation of the problem.

12.8.2.8. In case of non-recognition of unauthorized cross-border payment transactions (transactions) made using the card, contact the Bank in writing (in paper or electronic form) within 75 (seventy-five) days from the date of the transaction (from the date of the transaction/debiting the amount from account), except in the case where the Client/Cardholder missed the deadline specified in the clause due to the independent/objective reason(s) of the Client/Cardholder, and not due to an unjustified delay (the burden of proving the above lies with the Client/Cardholder). For the purposes of this paragraph, a cross-border payment transaction is an operation carried out using a card instrument (plastic card) issued in Georgia, and the receiving provider (acquirer) is a foreign payment service provider. The amount of the appealed transaction is subject to reimbursement by the Bank only if a complaint is filed with the Bank within the period provided for in this paragraph, or if fraudulent actions of a third party are clearly identified and/or the case reported by the Client/Cardholder is similar in content and/or circumstances to the cases considered The Bank previously, within the last 180 days, within which the amount of the unauthorized transaction was reimbursed to the Clients/Cardholders;

12.9. Responsibilities of the Parties

12.9.2. The Client shall bear full responsibility for damages related to the unauthorized payment transaction caused by their criminal act, intentional or negligent non-compliance with the obligations set forth in paragraph 12.8.2 of this Agreement, and/or if:

12.9.2.1. The Client uses the payment instrument in violation of the terms set forth for this payment instrument;

12.9.2.2. Does not follow the security measures of the payment instrument issued to them, does not ensure the protection of the personalized means and/or personalized data of this instrument;

12.9.2.3. In case of loss, theft, misappropriation or illegal use of a payment instrument, notify the bank or a person designated by the bank as soon as possible after discovery.

12.9.3. The Client is obligated to apply to the Bank in writing about the unauthorized or incorrect operation immediately after the completion of such operation and/or through a remote service channel.

12.9.4. The Client shall not be liable for any damage resulting from the unauthorized operation, unless the Bank has provided the receipt of the notice under Section 12.8.2.4 of this Agreement, unless such damage is caused by the Client's criminal or intentional act.

12.9.5. The Bank shall be liable for any damages incurred if it fails to perform a payment transaction by its intentional or culpable act, or performs it incorrectly or in violation of the term.

12.9.6. In case the VISA, MasterCard, Union Pay international rules and the procedures established by the bank determine that the client is obliged to return the chargeback amount to the bank, a refund must be made within 5 (five) banking days from the request. If the amount transferred in the form of chargeback is not returned within the mentioned period, the Bank is entitled to allow unauthorized limit in the amount of the chargeback, on the client's current, card or demand deposit account without their additional consent and upon their acceptance, as well as without sending them a notice, according to the terms of the agreement.

12.9.7. The bank is not responsible for:

12.9.7.1. Unauthorized use of the card due to facts caused by the cardholder, including during the period of validity of the request for cancellation of monitoring on the card by the client/cardholder.

12.9.7.2. Disputes arising between the cardholder and the service provider.

12.9.7.8. Damage resulting from unauthorized operation by the Client/Cardholder due to non-compliance with security measures or personalized security measures, if the transaction was carried out after receiving a notification from the Bank in accordance with sub-paragraph 12.8.2.4 (unless the damage is caused by criminal or intentional act of the Client/Cardholder).

12.9.7.9. If for reasons beyond the control of the bank, the card was not/could not be cashed at service points outside the bank; also, the Bank is not responsible for commissions written off and other actions performed by another person/financial institution for other transactions performed outside the ATM network of JSC Basisbank.

12.9.7.10. Consequences of using the 3D security service by the client/cardholder (including non-execution of the transaction due to incorrect entry of the one-time code, non-acceptance of the one-time code by the client/cardholder for reasons beyond the bank, delay of the transaction, etc.).

12.10. Card 3D Security

12.10.1. 3D security is an additional means of protection to ensure the security of online payment/transfer by the customer/cardholder with the card owned by them, provided that the relevant 3D security support for the card instrument is also provided by the payment/transfer website. In case 3D security is provided for the card instrument issued by the bank, it will be indicated in the information about the relevant card posted on the official website of the bank (www.basisbank.ge).

12.10.2. Activation of 3D card security can be done on the cards of VISA, MasterCard, Union Pay payment systems.

12.10.3. If 3D security is activated on the client/cardholder's card instrument, online payment/transfer will be possible using this payment instrument only after additional confirmation with the received one-time code, if the corresponding 3D security support provided for the card instrument is also provided for payment/transfer Implementing website. To confirm the payment/transfer transaction, a one-time code is sent by the client/cardholder to the relevant telephone number specially registered in the bank for this purpose, and in the absence of such - to the most recent contact telephone number registered by the client.

12.11. Review of the Complaint

12.11.1. The Bank reviews the client/cardholder's complaint about the unauthorized card transaction in accordance with the rules and procedures established by the bank.

12.11.2. Complaints are submitted to the bank in writing and/or through the bank's remote service channel.

12.11.3. The Client/Cardholder is obligated to submit to the Bank, together with the complaint, the documentation/information confirming the execution of the transaction appealed by them, as well as the additional information/documentation available to them in connection with the relevant transaction and/or requested by the Bank.

12.11.4. The complaint will be reviewed no later than 20 (twenty) working days after its submission, and if due to reasons beyond the control of the bank it is not possible to review the complaint and make a decision on it, the bank notifies the client/cardholder of the complaint and decision, by stating the relevant reasons for such delay.

12.11.5. The deadline for making a decision on the client/cardholder's complaint and notifying the applicant should not exceed 55 (fifty five) working days after the complaint is received.

12.11.6. The Bank is entitled to contact the acquirer or other party involved in the card transaction during the review of the disputed card transaction in Georgia to obtain information about the transaction, except for the cases when all the details and circumstances of the disputed transaction are known to the Bank.

12.12. Conversion

12.12.1. If card operation is carried out in a currency other than the currency of the card account, then the amount will be cut off the client/cardholder's account by conversion with the following exchange rate:

12.12.1.1. If card operation is carried out on the territory of Georgia the transaction is made with commercial exchange rate set by the Bank for the day of transaction accounting on Card Account.

12.12.1.2. If card operation carried out the territory of Georgia transaction is made with conversion commercial exchange rate set by the Bank for the day of transaction accounting on Card Account plus 1% (one percentage point).
